

The American Board of Dental Public Health

Incorporated 1950

BYLAWS OF THE

AMERICAN BOARD OF DENTAL PUBLIC HEALTH

ARTICLE I. The Corporation

Section 1. The name of this Corporation is the American Board of Dental Public Health (ABDPH).

Section 2. The Board serves as the Executive Council of the Corporation.

Section 3. The American Association of Public Health Dentistry (AAPHD) is the sponsoring organization for the ABDPH.

ARTICLE II. The Board

Section 1. The American Board of Dental Public Health (The Board, ABDPH) shall consist of five Directors who shall be certified Diplomates of the Board plus a Director-Elect.

Section 2. Officers of the Board are known as Directors and shall be a President, a Vice-President-Auditor, a Secretary-Treasurer, two Directors, and one Director-Elect.

Section 3. The term of office of each Director of the Board shall be one year, beginning when inducted into office at the close of the Annual Meeting of the Diplomates, and terminated when the successor is inducted into office at the next Annual Meeting of the Diplomates. Once the year has been completed, the Director progresses to his or her next year through the ranking. The ranking progression is: Director-Elect, two years as Director, Secretary-Treasurer, Vice-President-Auditor, and then President.

Section 4. Any Director who has completed one five-year term may not be reappointed to the Board until one year has elapsed since his/her period of service.

Section 5. A Director-Elect will be elected each year by the Diplomates of the Board. Diplomates in good standing (see Article III and Article IV, Section 6) are encouraged to submit their names as candidates for Director-Elect position to the ABDPH Executive Director at the time of the annual registration. In January of each calendar year, a committee consisting of two representatives of the ABDPH and two primary membership dentists from AAPHD will serve as the nominating committee. The committee will review all candidates and will determine a slate of 2 or more Diplomates for the Director-Elect position based on scope, competencies and the diversity of the Specialty within the Board. The slate of candidates will be voted on by all active Diplomates, in good standing, no later than March 15th of each year. The candidate receiving the most votes will be the new Director-Elect. The President will notify the President and Executive Director of the AAPHD of the election results.

Section 6. If an unexpected vacancy occurs in the Directorship of the Board, the President will nominate a replacement and the Board will vote on the nomination.

Section 7. The Board may appoint an Executive Director to assist in the conduct of its affairs. (see Article VI.)

ARTICLE III. Membership

Section 1. Members of the American Board of Dental Public Health are Directors and Diplomates.
