Re: Leverett Graduate Student Merit Award for Outstanding Achievement in Dental Public Health for Master and Doctoral Degree Students in Dental Public Health and Dental Public Health Residents

Deadline: January 6, 2017

Project Content and Procedure:

1. Each School of Public Health, School of Dentistry with a Graduate Program in Dental Public Health, and Agency with a Dental Public Health Residency Program may submit a maximum of two separate nominations for this award. The nominee(s) may be currently within their program or a recent graduate within one year of graduation and must have completed their project prior to graduation from their respective programs. The nominee(s) whose projects were completed during their fifth academic year of a Predoctoral dental program will be judged as a Master’s degree graduate project. The nominee(s) whose projects were completed during their doctoral degree program will be judged separately using criteria appropriate for evaluation of doctoral projects.

2. Each project should have a community and/or research basis with dental public health significance. The student(s) must prepare and submit the following:

   a) A report documenting background information, the project’s objectives and procedures used, a summary of results, a discussion of the impact on the community and its significance to dental public health and conclusions.
   b) Photographs, figures, forms/questionnaires or illustrated diagrams should be included where appropriate. The minimum font size should be 12 with one-inch margin. The typed report should be double-spaced and limited to a total of 20 pages of text, 5 pages of references, and 10 pages of appendices.
   c) A structured 250-word abstract of the project, 3-10 key words and source(s) of funding. Key words and source of funding are not included in the word count.
   d) A letter from the nominating faculty person. If the project involved human subject research a letter from the Institutional Review Board MUST also be attached.

3. Each project will be judged according to the following seven guidelines
   • Originality and design of the project.
   • Description of results and conclusions.
   • Quality of the results (data) from the project.
   • Scientific value of the project.
   • Dental Public Health value of the project.
   • Quality of the project presentation.
   • Demonstrated mastery of the subject.
